Candle Holder Collection

Item #PZI-429

A bold, square-based lantern candle holder with clean architectural lines and a sharply tapered crown. Its wider stance gives it real presence on larger surfaces — dining tables, hearths, or outdoor patios — while open glass sides let the flame's glow radiate in every direction. A matte black finish makes it equally suited to everyday styling and special-occasion tablescape.

Candle Holder Collection

Item #PZI-421

A graceful pair of slim taper candle holders with a gently spiraled stem that catches the light as the flame flickers. Their slender scale makes them easy to group in multiples down a table runner or window ledge for a dramatic candlelit row. Classic in shape yet contemporary in finish, they're a versatile staple for everyday dining and formal occasions.

Candle Holder Collection

Item #PZI-424

A coordinated set of three hexagonal pyramid candle holders in graduated sizes, designed to nest together or stand as a cluster. Faceted glass panels set in a fine metal frame let light refract and multiply across the group. The tiered heights create instant visual rhythm on a shelf or centerpiece, making this trio a strong multi-buy for gift sets and bundled promotions.

Candle Holder Collection

Item #PZI-426

A set of compact, cage-style votive holders with an open metal framework that lets candlelight escape in soft geometric patterns. Their small footprint makes them ideal for scattering across a table, mantel, or wedding tablescape in multiples. Priced and sized for volume selling, this set is a natural add-on for shoppers already buying larger pieces from the collection.

Candle Holder Collection

Item #PZI-417

An ornate, tall lantern-style candle holder finished with a decorative finial and delicate scrollwork along its crown. The added detailing lends a heritage, old-world character that appeals to shoppers seeking craftsmanship beyond a plain geometric piece. Best styled as a floor accent or an anchor piece on a sideboard, where its height and ornamentation can be fully appreciated.

Candle Holder Collection

Item #PZI-415 ABC

A three-piece votive set with staggered heights, designed to be displayed together as a mini candlelit landscape. Each holder shares the same open-frame construction, so the trio reads as a cohesive family even when the pieces are separated across different rooms — a strong bundle offer for building out entry-price gift sets.

Candle Holder Collection

Item #PZI-410

A substantial pillar-style hurricane holder with a wide glass cylinder set in a sturdy metal base. Built to house a large pillar candle, it throws generous, steady light and makes an impressive centerpiece on its own, with no grouping required. The scale and stability make it a favorite for event and hospitality buyers as well as home décor shoppers.

PRODUCT ZONE INTERNATIONAL

Candle Holder Collection

Item #PZI-411

A close variation on the collection's hurricane silhouette, with a slightly more tapered glass profile and a refined metal foot. Its clean, uncluttered look makes it a versatile fit for both minimalist and traditional interiors — a reliable everyday accent piece that also holds its own as a wedding or event rental staple.

Candle Holder Collection

Item #PZI-412

This hurricane-style holder rounds out the pillar family with subtly different proportions, giving retailers a range of sizes to merchandise together. Its wide, stable glass chamber shields the flame from drafts, making it as practical for outdoor patios as it is decorative indoors — a dependable volume seller across the collection's core range.

Candle Holder Collection

Item #PZI-413

The most decorative of the pillar-style holders, finished with an ornamental finial and refined metal detailing at the base. The added flourish gives it a premium feel suited to gifting occasions and holiday displays, and it pairs naturally with the collection's simpler hurricane pieces for a tiered in-store display.

Candle Holder Collection

Item #PZI-397

A classic glass-and-metal hurricane holder with clean, understated lines. Its versatile scale suits everyday use on a dining table or as a steady, wind-resistant option for outdoor entertaining — an accessible, easy-to-stock piece for shoppers who want dependable quality without heavy ornamentation.
